

Course Summary | Religion and Ethics (Applied)

Please refer to QCAA site for more information: Religion and Ethics Applied Senior Syllabus 2019: Overview | Queensland Curriculum and Assessment Authority \(qcaa.qld.edu.au\)

	Unit 1 World Religions and Spirituality	Unit 2 Sacred Stories	Unit 3 Peace	Unit 4 Social Justice
Assessment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Extended response - Project 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Extended response - Project 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Extended response - Project 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Extended response - Project
Learning Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • understanding of religious and spiritual diversity. • key beliefs, teachings and ritual practices of world religions and spiritualities • teachings from founders, prophets, spiritual leaders • the diversity and adaptability of religions and spiritualities 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • different text types used in sacred stories, • characteristics of sacred stories • sacred stories from various religions and spiritualities • various hermeneutical approaches used to understand and interpret sacred stories 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • anger management, conflict resolution, mediation, apology, peacemaking circles, restorative justice, • peacekeeping or peace-building organisations • religious principles used to respond to peace and conflict issues 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • anger management, conflict resolution, mediation, apology, peacemaking circles, restorative justice, • peacekeeping or peace-building organisations • religious principles used to respond to peace and conflict issues